$10 Suggested Love Offering

Seeking a creative complement/alternative to silent meditation & prayer? Join us! Chanting & Devotional Singing has transcended denominations as a way to deepen our relationship to Divine Consciousness and Presence. Individuals and groups have kept this practice of sacred sounds and devotional creative expression alive over thousands of years. Why? It invites healing, inner peace, connection and renewed spirit. Take a break from the stress and treat yourself to an evening of sacred sound and silence. It is this balance of sound and silence that brings valuable benefits to mind, body and spirit. Dress comfortably, bring a smile to share.

About the Facilitator...

Since the 90's, when Giselle Felicia Vivian started her journey with chanting, she has served as a kirtan ensemble musician/composer playing the harmonium, drums, viola and has sung lead and response vocals. Now, she shares her love of devotional music and creative expression as tools for empowerment and Divine Creative Expression thru ONE HEARTBEAT's ~ One Voice, One Heart programs. Thank you for your generous contributions which will help support the acquisition of a harmonium for OH. Learn more about Giselle's music & healing activities at www.oneheartbeatgfv.com
